

Origami Letters

*For Tenor Voice
and String Quartet*

Part for Violin II

Words and Music by

Nigel Morgan

This study score has been downloaded from the website archive of composer Nigel Morgan. The PDF file is solely for personal study, repertoire research or educational reference. It is not intended for use in public performance except in educational situations when an extract is required for illustration purposes.

Performance scores and parts are available from Tonality Systems Press in two formats: as standard printed and bound paper copies, and as PDF electronic masters carrying a special electronic license for an unlimited number of performances over an agreed period. For more information please e-mail Tonality Systems Press.

Origami Letters

For Tenor Voice

And String Quartet

Words and Music by

Nigel Morgan

About the Music

In the Spring of 2009 I received a packet of letters written on sheets of coloured and patterned Origami paper. In a world where the art and practice of letter-writing seems to be diminishing an envelope of letters was a treat, a rare gift. A dear friend, now a textile artist of some distinction, was completing an academic assignment whilst staying in her childhood home. Over three days and two nights she wrote letters on the back of origami paper full of gentle observations of her home, springtime, of children, of family celebrations, and walks under the broad skies of Lincolnshire.

I returned this gift with a sequence of poems meaning to set them to music for tenor voice and string quartet. The scoring was inspired by The Juliet Letters, a collaborative song cycle devised by the Brodsky Quartet for Elvis Costello. My setting was completed later in 2009 for the tenor Mark Padmore and the Brodsky Quartet. But like Paul Hindemith and his Das Marienleben settings of Rilke I was unsatisfied by this setting and in the spring of 2014 rewrote the whole work. Instead of resetting the poems 'as is' I made quite substantial changes and cuts, not just to the text as a whole but the way I treated the flow of words, this time using repetitions and re-orderings to create emphasis and musical effects.

Musically, the score was wholly recomposed using a number of algorithmic devices to generate a unique harmonic 'world'. The work was planned in two versions: for voice and keyboard; for voice and string quartet. In the former an aesthetic concept similar to the contemplative web artefact Fifteen Images was adopted, designing a score particularly suited to the art of the improvising pianist who is encouraged to treat the harmonic language with considerable freedom in choice of registration, voicing and figuration.

Performance Notes

Dynamics, articulations, tempo and expressive markings should be considered as starting points, no more. The recommended mode of performance for string quartet should be one of restraint and simplicity.

I

Fold upon fold
your origami letters
map thoughts,
images and moments
of three days,
two nights.

Now to unfold
the creased trajectories,
intersecting space,
following time:
bird-like flightpaths
on the radar screen.

Each coloured sheet,
placed on this desk,
becomes a tessellated diary,
and grows beneath the hand.
So generous a gift.
So readily received.

II

Ah, that's your secret:
the power of the list;
this, then this,
then freedom follows,
knowing the necessities
dusted and done.

Peaceful now,
and watching the clouds
cross the skylight, Bach decorates your soul
with his meditations
on the possibility of everything.

How did you guess
I love the detail of life-
lived, up to the hilt:
the embellishment of dreams
pulled from the ether
sound and sense in tow.

III

*I travelled North
in the seat opposite.
You didn't notice me
as you gazed
through your reflection,
sighting the past.*

*When you look at me
you rarely blink or glance away (as people do).
Poor nature,
She hasn't a chance, has she?
Never a mote missed.*

*As my passenger
I shall care for your silence;
to let you loose on unbidden thoughts
as they rise above
the scrolling hills.*

IV

Before your work
you sit, so still
as in a painting
by Hammershøi (Isa's hair,
so like your own).

Beyond the desk,
the bay window
stretches your gaze
to the fox-frequented garden,
the hedged less-leaved beech,
the un-blossomed pear.

*Now, in the mind's eye,
your son, your daughter
bed-bound in a doorway:
(a tender moment witnessed)
then the silent grace,
the shared meal.*

V

Night falls
and done for the day
the violins unravel.
Only on a brittle guitar,
a Prelude:
Subtle Mysteries of Sleep.

As you close your eyes
tomorrow beckons (in a list),
and thinking backwards:
the nettle soup tale;
a birthday cake adventure;
breakfast on the patio with sunshine.

Premonitions? Perhaps.
But in yesterday's paper
a shock of poetry,
plants the seeds of blank verse -
no pointers given (save these folded words).

VI

That evening
I asked the questions,
and later you said:
'If I'd not wanted to tell you
I wouldn't have'.
I'd already guessed. I knew.

out in the garden
a sunny day
skuddering clouds
white as the blossom
left and loose
leaving lightness

That evening,
as the minutes
ticked away,
I seemed at last
to see you entire,
even your quiet hands.

VII

As you fold
and crease your words sheet upon sheet
a running commentary
flows,
ebbs and flows:

your present reading;
that playlist of songs
to sing in solitude;
reflections on 'proper' letters
and the lost art of spelling.
Such word-gifts . . .

. . . and you ask if I mind. . .
when what you tell me
fills those empty rooms
I put aside for you:
to live undisturbed
in my imagination house.

VIII

The end in sight,
the samples stitched,
book-bound.
Show me,
and turn the pages
in your silent way,

no comment required,
none given.
The day is closing.
Time parts: for a tired child,
a birthday meal,
and now your mother's smile.

Whilst at work in her kitchen
you thought-visit
my peninsula home,
pondering a duet
of music and sea-breathing silence,
distance everywhere.

IX

White and Yellow,
the final sheet,
a sign to stop.
With the care and formality
of closure the writing ends, with just

your name.
How else could it be?
There's no other word embossed on these coloured pages
I pick up, I put down.

My fingers trace the braille
of your pen's indent.
the pressure and print
of letters formed.
Your very touch now
lies beneath my own.

© Nigel Morgan 2009

Origami Letters I

for Alice, always

Violin II

intimo ♩ = 60

mp

5 mf

mp

9 mp

mp

12 p

pp

16

mp

mf

s.p. _____ ord.

mp

pp

mp

20

p

pp

23

p

mf

p

Origami Letters II

26 Movido e sostenuto ♩ = 110

30

34 ritardando

38 semplice ♩ = 55

43 con primo ♩ = 110 ritardando

48 semplice e dolce ♩ = 55

53 pizz. arco

The musical score is written for a single melodic line on a treble clef staff. It consists of seven systems of music, each starting with a measure number. The first system (measures 26-29) is marked 'Movido e sostenuto' with a tempo of ♩ = 110. It begins with a half note in 3/4 time, followed by a whole note in 5/8 time, and ends with a half note in 3/4 time. The second system (measures 30-33) continues with eighth and quarter notes, including a dynamic change to p. The third system (measures 34-37) is marked 'ritardando' and features a change to 2/4 time. The fourth system (measures 38-42) is marked 'semplice' with a tempo of ♩ = 55, starting with a half note in 3/4 time. The fifth system (measures 43-47) is marked 'con primo' with a tempo of ♩ = 110 and 'ritardando', featuring a dynamic change to mf. The sixth system (measures 48-52) is marked 'semplice e dolce' with a tempo of ♩ = 55, starting with a half note in 2/4 time. The seventh system (measures 53-55) is marked 'pizz.' and 'arco', with dynamics mp, p, and pp respectively. The score includes various time signatures (3/4, 5/8, 2/4) and dynamic markings (p, mp, pp, f, mf). It also features performance instructions like 'Movido e sostenuto', 'ritardando', 'con primo', 'semplice', 'semplice e dolce', 'pizz.', and 'arco'.

Origami Letters III

56 guistamente e poco pesante ♩ = 90

60

64

68

72 IV III

77

82

86 ritardando

The musical score is written for a single melodic line on a treble clef staff. It consists of eight systems of music, each starting with a measure number. The tempo is marked as '♩ = 90'. The score includes various time signatures: 3/4, 7/8, 6/8, and 3/4. Dynamics are indicated by mf (mezzo-forte), f (forte), mp (mezzo-piano), and p (piano). The score features a variety of note values, including eighth, quarter, and half notes, as well as rests. There are several slurs and ties. The piece concludes with a ritardando marking and a final measure with a fermata.

Origami Letters IV

90 innocente ♩ = 65

93

97 ritardando

dolce ♩ = 50

101 innocente ♩ = 65

107

110

114 dolciss. ♩ = 55

117

Origami Letters V

120 con diligenza ♩ = 60

ppp pp p

125 poco calando a tempo

mp p

129 pizz risonare

mp risonare

133 arco calando a tempo

p p dim. mp

137 mf mp

141 impetuoso ♩ = 70 pizz

f mf

145 ritardando arco

p pp p ppp p

Origami Letters VI

149 indeciso e nervoso ♩ = 60

p pp p

153 pp p

157

mp

161 meno e dolce quasi pastorale ♩ = 55

mf mp p

165 pp s.p. ord. p

169

pp

173 indeciso e nervoso ♩ = 60

p pp p mp

177 , ritardando

mf p pp

Origami Letters VII

[illegible]

185

mf

189 mp p mp

192

196

2/4 3/4 4/4 4/4 5/8

199 mf mp p

202

ritardando

pp p mp p

206

pp

Origami Letters VIII

209 espressivo ♩ = 90

p con sord mp

213

pp p

218 mp p mf

222 mp

226

p flautando mp

230

mf ord. mp

234

p p mf

238 calando

pp senza sord.

Origami Letters IX

240 enfatico ♩ = 95
mf

243
p sotto voce

247 ritardando innocente ♩ = 75
mf ord. f mf p

251

254

257 , enfatico ♩ = 95
mf

260 mp mf poco pesante

264 ritardando III
pp p leggero pp